

1.

- € Keep portable equipment secure
- € Position monitor and printers so that others cannot see sensitive data
- €

Service packs are used to patch a wide range of vulnerabilities and bugs. The required to be installed on the computer. Include not only user-oriented application software, but also system-related soft vulnerabilities apply only to

- € The functionality that the external programs provide should be well understood.

3.3.5

Time/date

5.2.2 Organizations should use firewalls to secure their Internet c

5.4.2 Figure 1 shows a general picture of a firewall environment. For remote users, a VPN should be considered as an alternat

5.5.12 Personnel installing changes must be authorized to do so and held accountable for the change. If the organization does not identify the authorized individuals who update the firewall, the risk in

